Welcome to the Bread & Roses Heritage Festival, a FREE, open-air, labor and social justice festival, held every year on Labor Day in Lawrence!

Thank you for your interest in becoming a vendor!

This packet includes:

- Vendor Agreement
- Non-Food Vendor Application

Non-Food Vendors include:

- Artist Vendors
- Non-Profit Vendors
- Small Businesses
- Commercial Vendors
- History & Labor (unions)

Note, this year's application deadline is July 29th, 2019

Vendor Agreement

I, the undersigned vendor, hereby agree as follows:

- That I will not sell and/or distribute items different from those specifically listed on my application without prior written permission of the Festival Vendor Coordinator;
- That I will sell and/or distribute items ONLY in the location designated and assigned to me by the Festival Vendor Coordinator;
- That I will set up at my location and be ready for the public by the start of the Festival at 11:45am. (Setup starts at 9am);
- I understand that I am to provide my own table, chairs, and if I'd like, a tent that fits within the confines of the vendor space that I am applying for;
- Electricity is not provided for Non-Food Vendors. Therefore, I agree that I will NOT USE A GENERATOR, of any sort;
- I agree to leave the site assigned to me in better condition than when I arrived, including but not limited to being free of all trash or refuse;
- I agree to allow my site to be inspected by members of the Festival Committee and any other applicable authority;
- That in the event that I do not comply with any of the within provisions, a member of the Festival Committee may require that I vacate the Festival site immediately and forfeit any monies paid by me or my organization;
- That I agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Bread & Roses Heritage Committee, the City of Lawrence, the Lawrence Heritage State Park and the Department of Conservation and Recreation for any and all injuries, claims, losses and/or damage incurred on or off the premises during the Festival, including, but not limited to the set-up and clean-up periods.
